

GROAM HOUSE MUSEUM

EXPERT-LED PICTISH HERITAGE EXPERIENCE

Who we are

Groam House Museum is an award-winning independent museum in Rosemarkie on the Black Isle, home to one of Scotland's most important collections of Pictish sculpture. Our experiences are led by the museum's curator, offering expert interpretation, storytelling, and close engagement with early medieval history in an intimate setting

Location & access

- Rosemarkie, Black Isle (IV10 8UF)
- Approx. 30 minutes from Inverness
- Public Parking & toilets available nearby
- Museum shop on site

The experience

A guided visit focused on Pictish stones and early medieval belief, centred on the internationally significant Rosemarkie Cross-Slab. Guests enjoy expert-led interpretation, storytelling, and time to explore the museum collection.

Duration: 45–60 minutes

Group size: Max 25

Season: all year by arrangement

Pricing (2026)

£12 per person

Minimum group charge: £60

Trade net rates available on request

Included:

Museum entry

Expert-led guided experience

Optional add-ons

- Storytelling session (traditional folklore)
- Behind-the-scenes store visit (exclusive small groups <10 only)
- Object handling experience (exclusive small groups <10 only)

Advance booking required

 www.groamhouse.org.uk

 aila.schafer@groamhouse.org.uk